Abstract Expressionism Painting

Tuesday 14th, 21st & 28th May
10:30am - 12:30pm

Join Bobby to experiment with the process of creating mixed media abstract paintings that tell a story or message. Using newspaper, pva glue and paint you will be guided through the processes and techniques used by Bobby in his own work (pictured above).

Supported by Bobby (Volunteer)

Mosaic

Every Tuesday in May
(7th, 14th, 21st and 28th)
2pm - 4pm

Mosaic is a pattern or image made from small pieces of glass or ceramic fixed by adhesive and covered with grout.

Mosaics can be functional, for example a house number plate. Mosaics can also be decorative, for example an abstract design.

You will design an image, colours and size of tiles to create your mosaic.

Animation

← Scan to watch a recent animation

Every Tuesday in May
(7th, 14th, 21st and 28th)
2pm - 4pm

In these workshops we will use stop motion animation techniques (used in Wallace and Gromit!) The process is broken down into simple stages that are easy to follow even if you are not confident with using technology. If you have attended animation workshops before, you can use these sessions to further progress your animating practice.

Artlink are joining us for Animation

Who are Artlink?

Artlink is a charity who believes in the power of creativity to enhance people's lives and aims to provide access to artistic experiences for all.

Aya

Why are they joining Animation at Reachout?

Artlink Central participants and Artist Facilitator Aya will collaborate with Reachout members and George for animation, to skill-share. Participants will build model houses to represent neighbourhood diversity, creating characters and objects for a short animation.
